

FOUNDATIONS OF LAW AND FINANCE

There is nowadays a growing consensus in academic and policy circles that regulating corporations, financial institutions, and markets ideally postulates a truly interdisciplinary approach. The LawFin Center supports the quest for fruitful interdisciplinarity by gathering economists, legal scholars, and political scientists for a critical discussion of each other's work. As a part of its mission, the LawFin Center organizes bi-annual interdisciplinary workshop series that will serve as a forum for discussions regarding topical challenges.

The 3rd LawFin workshop will focus on:

“The Quest for Sustainability: A Law & Finance Dialogue”
